DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Suzuki (2003/0148203). Suzuki teaches a toner with external additives of silica, titania, lubricant, and fine polymer particles (examples 9-11).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1756

5. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Baba (5,766,814). Baba teaches external toner additives where the additives may be used in combination (col. 16 lines 63-64). In the alternative, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use these external additives in any combination because of the direct suggestion of Baba.

6. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Suzuki as applied to claims 1-25 above, and further in view of Baba. Suzuki is explained above. Suzuki does not specifically teach barium sulfate as an external additive. Baba teaches multiple external additives that include barium sulfate. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include barium sulfate as an external additive in the toner taught by Suzuki because of the direct suggestion of Suzuki to the equivalence of external additive and the expectation of similar results due the known use of multiple external toner additives taught by each of Suzuki and Baba.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 5 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 5 and 9 depend from claim 1 and refer to the amount of lubricant as being 0 to 0.4 mass%. Claim 1 now requires that the lubricant is positively recited. It is suggested by the Examiner that the about of the lubricant be changed to –up to 0.4 mass%--.

9. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: the inventive toner. The claim language of “using toner” in lines 4 and 9 of claim 1 bring doubt to the positive recitation of the toner specifically claimed in the image forming apparatus. It is suggested by the Examiner that these instances be changed to –comprising toner--.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
